Senator Curtis At State Fair

Senator Charles Curtis, vice presidential candidate, will be the guest of the New York State Farm Bureau Federation at the State Fair on Farm and Home Bureau Day, Tuesday, August 28, according to announcement just made by the Federation.

During the past few years Farm and Home Bureau Day has been a popular day for farmers to attend the fair, on account of the special program arranged for it by the State Farm Bureau Federation. This year several attractions are scheduled, chief of which will be a speech by Senator Curtis at 11:30 a. m. at Empire Court. This will be preceded by a parade of 4-H Club boys and girls. Nearly two thousand of them will be in line and march to the music of the Fair Band. The parade will start at the Industrial Building at 10:45, and wind up at Empire Court at 11:30. A section of the court will be roped off for the children so that they can hear the speeches.

The Hon. Berne Pyke, Commissioner of Farms and Markets, will open the program by introducing President C. R. White, of the State Farm Federation, who will act as chairman of the meeting. Mrs. Eliza Keates Young, president of the State Home Bureau Federation, will also speak. At 4 p. m. an Indian program will be put on by Earl Bates, who has charge of the Indian Village on the fair grounds. Another attraction for the day is a state horseshoe pitching contest, sponsored jointly by County Farm Bureaus and the American Agriculturist. Contests have already been held in the various counties, and their winners are to be the contestants in the finals for the state championship on Farm and Home Bureau Day.

Directors of the State Farm Bureau Federation will hold one of their regular meetings on the following morning, Wednesday, August 29.

SMITH SPIES REPORT OF GOING TO OREGON

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 22 (AP).—Governor Smith Tuesday spied reports that he planned to make about twenty set speeches during his campaign for the presidency and that he intended to launch his drive some time in September with a trip across the continent for an initial address in Oregon.

"I don't know a thing about it," he told newspapermen at his daily conference just before leaving his office at the Capitol to test out the radio on the east steps where he will deliver his acceptance speech tomorrow evening.

"Nothing at all has been decided yet," he added. "There never was any talk about getting up in Oregon."

The Democratic presidential nominee said the reports apparently had been predicated on "train schedules" and nothing else, as he had yet to talk over such plans with party leaders.

Asked if he had observed any reaction to his reply to William Allen White's attack against his record as an ambassador, the governor said: "None, except what came in this morning, and I haven't seen it yet."

He said he thought his answer "would close up the whole matter."

"I don't see what can be said now," he added, "because the record as I stated it is absolutely right."

Information that reports from Washington had carried the suggestion for an "old-time inaugural" there for the next president, the nominee said there was plenty of time to think about that.

"I believe that will get serious consideration some time around Lincoln's birthday," he replied, adding with a smile: "I wouldn't get snick- about that."

Talking of plans for the day, the governor pointed to a telephone on his desk and remarked: "I want to get away from my friends here on my right and get my value in shape for tomorrow night. It's got to go all over the country."

Shortly afterward, the nominee gave the radio trial outside and called for his automobile to take him across the border into Massachusetts, where he planned some golf at Stockbridge with Norman H. Davis, under secretary of state and assistant secretary of the treasury in the Wilson cabinet.

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the governor's running mate, and Senator Pittman of Nevada, who will deliver the notification address, will be house guests of the nominee tomorrow night. Chairman Wescott, of the national committee, will stay at a hotel adjacent to the Capitol.

"Will everybody be here?" the governor was asked.

"Everybody that's anybody," he replied.

ROBINSON DECLINES
SOUTH VISITATION

New York, Aug. 22 (AP).—Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic vice presidential nominee, declared in a statement yesterday that Governor Smith's reply to William Allen White constituted a "terrible and complete vindication" of his record.

"It is clear that Mr. White's recollections on Governor Smith were recklessly made and without foundation," the Senator said. "The published review by the Governor of the facts emphasizes the importance of fairness and justice in conducting a great political campaign such as is now in progress.

"Mr. White has enjoyed a reputation for honorable dealings with his fellowmen which this modest statement is a regrettable stain on his record. It is regrettable that he should have permitted himself to be used in the circulation of inaccurate and untruthful statements concerning a fellow citizen by an unscrupulous Republican campaign organization unwilling to assume responsibility for the methods which they inspire."

BASIC FACTS for the BUYER of a NEW AUTOMOBILE

- 1 Your present car has only one fundamental basis of value; i. e., what the dealer who accepts it in trade can get for it in the used car market.
- 2 Your present car has seemingly different values because competitive dealers are bidding to sell you a new car.
- 3 The largest allowance offered is not necessarily the best deal for you. Sometimes it is; sometimes it is not.
- 4 An excessive allowance may mean that you are paying an excessive price for the new car in comparison with its real value.
- 5 First judge the merits of the new car in comparison with its price, including all delivery and finance charges. Then weigh any difference in allowance offered on your present car. Remember that you are making a purchase, not a sale.

A "USED CAR" IS UNUSED TRANSPORTATION

A new Safeguard for NEW YORK CENTRAL TRAINS

THE increasing safety of travel is an outstanding development of recent railroad history. To this achievement New York Central has contributed in no small measure.

The New York Central from Chicago to Croton-on-Hudson, New York, and the Boston & Albany from Albany to Boston, are now equipped with Automatic Electric Train Stop. Installations have also been made on the Michigan Central from Chicago to Detroit, on the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie from Pittsburgh to Youngstown, and on parts of the Big Four.

The Automatic Train Stop supplements the Automatic Electric Block Signal. If an engineer does not respond to a signal, his train is automatically stopped by the regular "service" brakes. In the 19-hour run of the Twentieth Century Limited between Croton-on-Hudson and Chicago, for example, there are 905 automatic block signals, and at every one of these points the automatic stopping device stands ready to replace the engineer's hand.

The Automatic Electric Train Stop on New York Central Lines now covers 2025 locomotives, 1682 miles of road, and 4766 miles of track—30 per cent of all track so equipped in the United States. The cost of this work to date is $4,631,000.

Installation of this device on the entire steam-operated mileage between Chicago and the two Atlantic seaboard terminals gives New York Central the distinction of being the first American railroad to provide this added protection on one of the great through routes between the East and the West.

The past president of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs claims that a man's chance of getting an ideal wife are only three out of ten. According to her statement, American wives fall into five classes: House-makers or "Ideal" type 36 per cent; Jazz or "Can Opener" type 29 per cent; Nagging type 15 per cent; Drudge type 20 per cent; Baby Doll type 15 per cent. But most women would turn out to be good house-makers, she said, if they were supplied with the "makings"—that is good plumbing, well-built kitchens and more and better labor-saving devices of all sorts. To which our only comment is Amen!

The meanest man that ever lived is not the one who told his child that Santa Claus was dead. The meanest man in the world is the man who tells rotten booting stories to a lot of fool young boys who think it smart to drink it.

The station master on the East Indian Railway had been given strict orders not to do anything out of the ordinary without authority from the superintendent.

This accounts for his sending the following telegram: "Superintendent's Office, Calcutta: 'Tiger on platform eating conductor. Please wire instructions.'"

A man was asked by a friend if he suffered much from a flood. He said yes, his mother-in-law had to stay a week overtime because trains didn't run.

Natural Conclusion.
Editor: "What makes you think this is a Democratic paper?"
Visitor: "It only tells what the Republicans are doing."

A young man is a person who hasn't sense enough to go to bed at night, even when he is sleepy.

Man may not be superior, but he wouldn't marry something the cat dragged in—not just in order to escape being an old bachelor.

"What size bank is the one you work in?"
"Well, it takes a good story two weeks to get from the president back to the president again."

Evolution.
In cave-man days a club was used to get away with women. Now it is used to get away from them.

Those who would rule or ruin will do both if given the opportunity.

Johnny (woefully): "I always thought a yard was three feet until I started cutting the grass."

Clerk: "Did you get rid of any moths with those moth balls you bought?"
Mrs. Dunn: "No, I tried for five hours, but I couldn't hit a one."

Briggs: "I've lost my new car."
Griggs: "Why don't you report it to the sheriff?"
Briggs: "He's the one that took it."

The only thing a woman puts on over her head these days is her beads.

Plenty: An amount equal to that possessed by the neighbors.

Home is the place where you brush up a little before going to the drug store for lunch.

"Do you think you could learn to love me?"
"I don't know, but I'm thinking of taking lessons from a fellow down the street."

PINE HILL.
Pine Hill, Aug. 22.—The Ladies' Sewing Society of the Presbyterian Church met at the church hall last Thursday afternoon.

Very little cauliflower has been shipped from the Catskills thus far this season. The early crop in Delaware county is very light, which evidently was caused by the unusual amount of wet weather. The later crop seems to be of a better quality.

AMERICAN motorists buy more and more Dunlops. This July — 97% more than July a year ago.

June was 65% ahead. May, a gain of 62%.

Add to these gains the fact that there are over 26 million Dunlops now running. Isn't it easy to believe that Dunlops must be better tires?

And the reasons for Dunlops superiority are just as easy to understand.

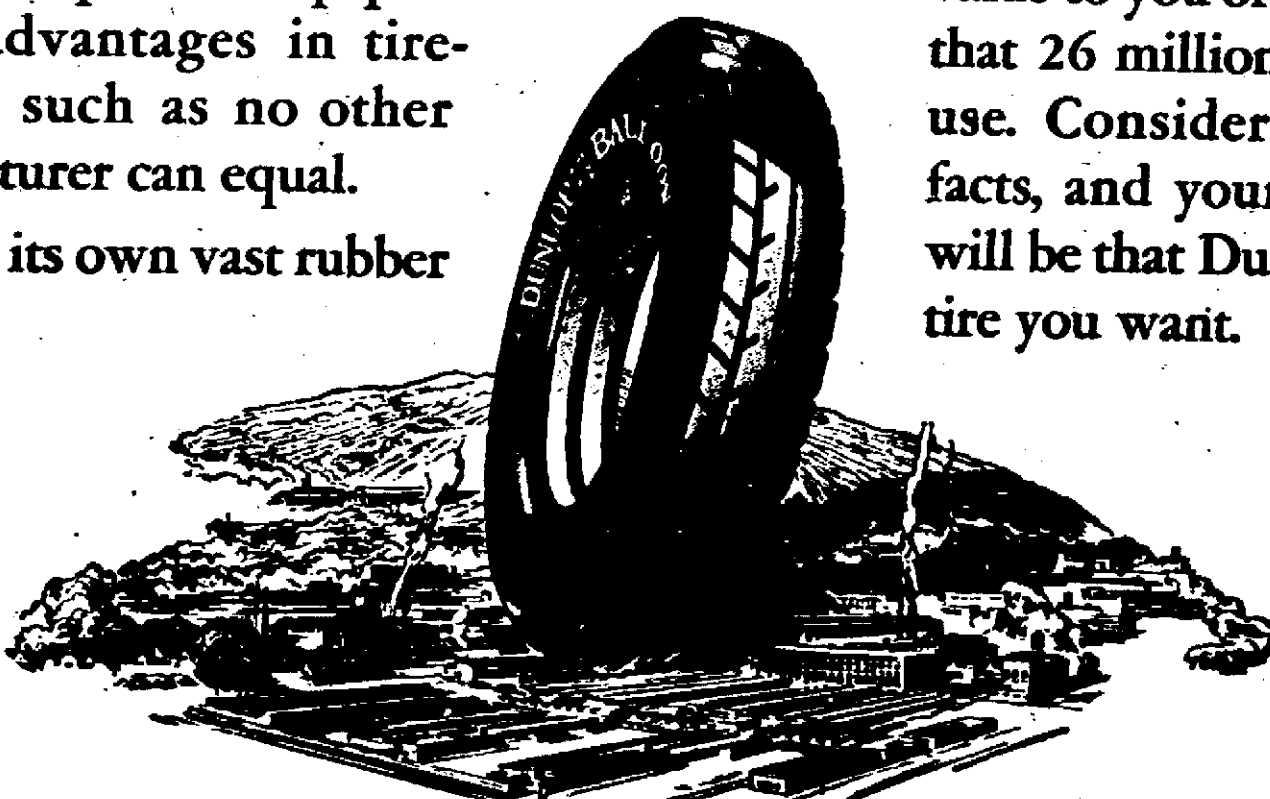

Summed up: Dunlop possesses advantages in tire-making such as no other manufacturer can equal.

Owning its own vast rubber plantations...with over $195,000,000 in resources, 40 years' tire-building experience, and 45,000 craftsmen... Dunlop is in a unique position to make consistently better tires.

Better tires attract better dealers. So it is only natural to find Dunlop dealers truly qualified to service your every need.

Consider the value to you of top-notch dealer service. Consider the value to you of tires so good that 26 million are now in use. Consider both these facts, and your conclusion will be that Dunlops are the tire you want.

De Palma Broke Track Record

Speed Auto Racer Who Came Here Yesterday Made Half Mile at Middletown in 28.25 Seconds—Other Speed Racers Coming.

In breaking the record of the track at Middletown last Saturday Ralph DePalma at the same time thrilled thousands of spectators who were there for that purpose, and as a whole the races were a great success from every standpoint, in that there was no accident and speaking in the word of the classics and Will Rogers, "a good time was had by all."

In bringing the races back to Kingston for Labor Day the Chamber of Commerce should be complimented in this undertaking as it means a great expenditure and it is hoped that the people of Kingston and the vicinity will support this affair, as it is the plan now to make this auto racing meet an annual affair. Among the nationally known race drivers who will be here Monday, September 3, Labor Day, to participate in the auto races will be Ralph DePalma, Bob Robinson, Benny Schuch, Al Aspin, Bill Hoffman, Frank Farmer, Douglas Wallace, George Genung and many others.

The racers will come to Kingston from Toronto, after finishing there a three-day race meet at the Toronto Exposition which is the largest and most popular exposition on the North American continent.

Speed seems to be the predominating feature of this age and that is what these speedsters always furnish. Just for something to think about, Ralph DePalma in breaking the track record last Saturday at Middletown drove the half mile track in twenty-eight and two-fifths seconds, taking three-fifths of a second off the record made two years ago on the same track by George Genung. This is going at the rate of about 74 miles per hour, and in the twenty mile race a speed of a mile a minute was maintained for ten miles, which was twenty laps of the track.

The races are sanctioned by the American Automobile Association and are supervised by an official of their contest board. The race drivers and also their cars must come up to a certain standard before they can be registered and drive under their sanction. These races are not merely an exhibition of speedy driving, as they are open and are free for all, and each race at every meet is always for "blood," so to speak, for each man in the race business the same as any other is ever striving for supremacy in his particular line. From all reports there will be a big day in Kingston Labor Day.

Fined for Reckless Driving.
Philip Schecter, 20-year-old Brooklyn machinist, was fined $15 by Police Justice Paul R. Morrison for driving recklessly on Sunday. He was arrested on complaint of Joseph Schecter, who said he passed him on a blind turn near Camenton. In a controversy which followed Schecter is alleged to have said he would have forced Schecter into a ditch had it not been for his wife and children being in the car.

Frost Arrested Following Crash

St. Bern. Man Held on Charge of Operating an Auto While Intoxicated on Wilbur Avenue Tuesday Night—Struck Another Car.

Jacob Frost of St. Bern. was arrested by the police Tuesday evening on a charge of operating an automobile while intoxicated on Wilbur avenue. Louis Barton of Eddyville, who was riding with Frost, was also arrested on a charge of public intoxication. Both spent the night in the county jail and this morning in police court were represented by Attorney William D. Brinaker, who entered a plea of not guilty in their behalf and asked for an adjournment to September 5, which was granted. At Mr. Brinaker's request both men were paroled in his custody.

According to the story told by the police at the time the men were arrested they were driving on Wilbur avenue. Another automobilist saw them approaching, running the car from one side of the road to the other, and to avoid a collision the other car was run off the road as far as possible. It is alleged that Frost drove his car into the other car, damaging it quite badly. Someone called police headquarters and Officer Burger was hurried to the scene, placing Frost and Barton under arrest.

Drunken Driver Fined and Jailed

Randolph Watkins, a negro residing at New Paltz, pleaded guilty to driving an automobile while intoxicated on Ann street on Sunday afternoon, when arraigned before Judge Shufeldt in police court this morning, and was fined $100 and sentenced to twenty days in jail.

Another adjournment, this time to Friday morning, was taken in the case of Joseph Charles of this city, charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated. Charles was represented in police court by William D. Brinaker.

Maurice Fineson of New York city, arrested Tuesday night by Special Officer DeGraff, who charged him with reckless driving, had his hearing adjourned to Saturday.

Patrick Hughes of New York city was fined $5 on his plea of guilty to public intoxication.

Five Hurt, Car Beyond Salvaging

Jack Sorbet of Woodstock is in the City of Kingston Hospital suffering from lacerations received Tuesday evening when a Liberty car in which he was riding went over the bank at the dugway near Ideal Park. Sorbet was brought to the hospital by State Troopers who responded to a call for assistance.

With Sorbet were four men who are boarding at the Smith Cottage at Mt. Tremper. All four escaped with minor injuries which were attended to by Dr. Pace of Poughkeepsie. The car was so badly damaged in its plunge from the road that the owner left it where it landed after the crash, a wrecker from Mac's Garage at Mt. Tremper went to the scene but the car was found to be so badly damaged that it was not salvaged.

Fire Department Called Out Twice

This morning the fire department answered two alarms of fire. The first was a call from Box 61 for a fire in a frame building in the rear of 58 Thomas street, owned by the Eichler estate and leased by Frank Corsiglia & Son as a storage house and as a garage by Vincent J. Andretta. A Dodge truck and a Hupmobile sedan in the building were badly damaged. The cars were owned by Andretta. The alarm was turned in at 3:36 o'clock.

At 4:15 o'clock an alarm was turned in from Box 115 for a fire at the Standard Oil gas station at Foxhall avenue and Grand street. A small building used as an oil house had a fire on one of the window sills. The damage was slight.

Movie Ticker Installed Here

Parker, McElroy & Company, members of the New York Stock Exchange with local offices at 250 Fair street, have had installed, for the benefit and convenience of their patrons, the latest invention of its kind, "The Movie Ticker."

"The Movie Ticker" is sponsored by The News Projecting Corporation of New York city, and was installed in the local office by a representative of that company Saturday.

"The Movie Ticker" magnifies the tape upon a large screen where the quotations, hot off the stove, are visible from all parts of the customers' room. Quotations are greatly magnified as they move across the screen and every customer, even one whose vision is below normal, will have no trouble in reading the wire reports.

Largely through the initiative and foresight of George G. Brooks, local manager for Parker, McElroy & Company, "The Movie Ticker" has been placed in operation here. The machine now in use at the Kingston office is the first of a series to be installed by the Parker McElroy Company in its various offices.

During the absence of Mr. Brooks, who is spending his summer vacation at Stamford, N. Y., the local offices are in charge of his son, Lowell Brooks.

DEMOCRATS NAME HUNT TO SUCCEED WILLIS

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 22 (AP).—Graham P. Hunt, Cincinnati Liberal, is the Democratic nominee for the short term U. S. senatorial seat made vacant by the death of Senator Frank R. Willis last spring. His nomination was declared today by Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown, with an official majority of 757 votes over Senator Cyrus Locher, Cleveland.

The official count by the secretary of state gave Hunt 94,198 votes to 33,441 for Senator Locher. Locher had the endorsement of the Anti-Saloon League and drew his support mainly from the small rural dry counties.

Hunt not only denounced the dry organization, which he has fought for many years, but advocated modification of the Volstead law. He also gave full endorsement to Governor Smith as the presidential candidate and the Houston platform. Hunt drew heavy support from the large cities.

Senator Locher indicated he will ask for an investigation of the voting in Cuyahoga county (Cleveland) and seven other counties, in which he intimated there had been irregularities.

WITNESS IN CHICAGO ELECTION FRAUDS MURDERED

Chicago, Aug. 22 (AP).—Sought as a witness for the special election frauds grand jury, Leigh D. Bernardo was found shot to death in his automobile parked under a viaduct on the west side today.

Di Bernardo was wanted for questioning in connection with the slaying of Octaviano Granady, negro candidate opposing Morris Eller for twentieth ward committeeman, who was assassinated on primary election day.

Police began an investigation of Di Bernardo's slaying on the theory he was killed because he "knew too much."

Cool Housekeeping—Pleasant ironing

Ironing day holds no dread for the woman whose home is equipped with gas and electric appliances. Cool housekeeping is assured and the work is done in half the time. An electric iron may be plugged in wherever the coolest breezes are blowing—near open windows or even on the porch. And with a gas-fired dryer, clothes are prepared for ironing the day they are washed, no matter how inclement the weather.

Every day, women are learning that with the use of gas and electric appliances the burdens of housekeeping are greatly lightened. Work is done coolly, quickly and easily.

All of our gas appliances bear the Blue Star of the American Gas Association Testing Laboratory, which means safety, efficiency and ruggedness.

Step on Wire, 5 Electrocuted

Phoenix, Ariz., Aug. 22 (AP).—Five persons were electrocuted here last night when they stumbled across a bare 2300 volt high power line blown to the ground during a terrific windstorm about midnight.

Three of the victims, Richard Miller, his wife and a son, were instantly killed. Two others, Miller's son Wesley, and a neighbor, Carl Meeks, died attempting to rescue the three.

Miller stepped on the wire while en route to work. His screams brought his wife and a son to his aid. Both died when they came in contact with the wire. Wesley, another son, escaped from the wire once, and his shouting attracted Meeks. The two returned and attempted to drag the bodies loose, both being killed in the attempt.

SLIGHT HOPES HELD FOR NEW YORK GUNMAN

Slight hopes of recovery are held for Morris Stepler, New York gunman, who was shot by Michael Steiglitz, waiter at the Loch Sheldrake Country Club, near Monticello, early Sunday morning, when four men tried to rob the place. Three of the bandits of whom Stepler refuses to tell anything, even though he despises their cowardly act, escaped and a search is being conducted by State Troopers and a sheriff's posse throughout Sullivan county.

Stepler was hit three times in the back by bullets from the gun of Steiglitz, the waiter and deputy sheriff, who put a damper on what might have been a wholesale holdup by his marksmanship. The wife of the wounded man, whom he had abandoned in New York, visited him at the hospital and a reconciliation was effected. The woman returned to New York to care for their child.

RELIEVE NOTIFICATION WILL BE HELD OUTDOORS.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 22 (AP).—"Partly cloudy" was the official forecast issued this forenoon by the Albany office of the U. S. Weather Bureau.

Forecaster Lindgren said he believed that the rain which had been falling intermittently during the forenoon would cease during the day and that the ceremony attending the official notification to Governor Alfred E. Smith that he had been nominated as the Democratic presidential candidate could be held outdoors as planned.

New Decorations for Synagogue.
The synagogue of the Congregation Agudas Achim, West Union street, is receiving an entirely complete interior decoration which upon completion will present a very attractive appearance. The expenses of this work have been donated by Joseph Shapiro of Rosendale, and the congregation wish to express to Mr. Shapiro their sincere gratitude.

U. S. Olympic Athletes Return

New York, Aug. 22 (AP).—The main body of America's Olympic athletes returned today from Amsterdam aboard the liner President Roosevelt and received a noisy welcome.

While some of the athletes appeared downhearted and disappointed at the showing of their team abroad, Major General Douglas MacArthur expressed the official attitude by issuing a statement in which he had high praise for the improved quality of athletic competition abroad and pointed to what he said is an unprecedented number of records broken by the American entrants to indicate the strength of this year's Olympic team.

The Olympic ship was met at Quarantine at 8 o'clock by the mayor's committee aboard the official reception boats, the Macon and Manhattan, and escorted up the bay to the accompaniment of the shrieking of sirens, tooting of whistles, the blaring of a band and streams of water flung high into the air by a fireboat off the Battery.

Because of the rain, which was falling when the vessel docked it was decided to have the city's official reception to the team immediately and at the pier, dispensing with the scheduled parade up Broadway to the city hall.

SNOW IN TURKEY SPREADS DEATH AND DESTRUCTION

Trebizond, Turkey, Aug. 22 (AP).—The first August snow in Turkish history, spreading death and destruction over Trebizond and the surrounding region, has sent the inhabitants scurrying to the mosques to pray that Allah's wrath be abated.

While Constantinople and Ankara swelter in the hottest summer experienced in years, snow, mysterious and phenomenal to the natives, continues to fall in Trebizond. It is piled 15 feet deep on the Gumush-Khane plateau, above the city, and 12 persons have been frozen to death. Crops are ruined and hundreds of cattle have perished.

Fanatically superstitious, the inhabitants of Trebizond, who were the only people in Turkey to resist actively the adoption of the hat in place of the time-honored fez, see in this icy visitation a manifestation of Allah's wrath. Just as earthquakes followed the religious changes recently decreed by the government.

The people believe God is angry because of the scrapping of the Arabic alphabet, the sacred symbols in which the Koran was written. This change also was effected by edict of the government.

Esopus Council, No. 42, Sons and Daughters of Liberty, will hold a card party in Mechanics' Hall on Henry street, Kingston, Thursday afternoon, August 23, from 2 to 5 p. m. Prizes, refreshments. The public is invited.—Advertisement.

RAIN INSURANCE LOSS ON RACES SETTLED
The horse racing and automobile racing events held at the race track on Manor avenue last week were covered with rain insurance through the office of Brinaker & Carey.

The weather the first three days was fine, the best that could be expected for an outdoor event, but, as will be remembered, it commenced to rain about 11 o'clock on the morning of the fourth day and continued so during the afternoon, necessitating abandonment of the automobile races.

It was good judgment on the part of the committee in charge to have placed rain insurance on a race which have been sustained. The claim under the policy was adjusted and paid in full this morning in the office of Brinaker & Carey who wrote the insurance.

PLAN DEMOCRATIC WOMEN'S MOTOR CORPS
Albany, N. Y., Aug. 22 (AP).—Plans for a women's motor corps to travel over the state distributing literature and organizing the rural women in favor of Governor Smith were announced today by Mrs. Daniel O'Day, acting chairman of the State Democratic Committee.

My Hair is a Fight

Edna Wallace Hopper, the stage favorite, in her sixties still graces the footlights with the vivacious charm of a flapper. She knows the art of a lovely appearance. Miss Hopper in an interview remarks that women always apologize when trying on a new dress or hat. How many of them say, "Of course, it will look better when my hair is in decent shape."

So it is well to know that you can always keep your hair looking its best. Even the trying heat-record days of summer need not dismay you. Miss Hopper with some forty years of stage work behind her, knows the tricks of attracting. Among the most important she rates is the perfect curling fluid to keep your hair alluring regardless of circumstances. Wave and Sheen, she calls it. A liquid dressing which is a godsend, especially during the summertime. It not only preserves the wave but gives your hair a soft, fascinating sheen. Try it on your freshly shampooed hair. Money back if you are not delighted. At all toilet counters, 75 cents.

Flash of Life Sketched in Brief

By The Associated Press.

Forest Hills, N. Y.—Quite a few of the girls are going barelegged when playing national tournament tennis. Among them are Miss Eleanor Smith and Mrs. Charlotte Homer Chappin. But the girl who will win the tournament wears stockings as usual. Perhaps the fad will spread to tournament golf if the style at seaside links prevails.

Prospert, N. Y.—Eleanor Smith, 16, is a high flier. She made the world's altitude record for women at Curtiss Field, but does not know what it is. No other of her sex has tried it under official auspices. At 5,000 feet, her altimeter stopped. The distance she climbed will be known when a scaled barograph is opened.

New York—Having spent $1,500,000 in two years on "The Ladder," a play dealing with reincarnation, Edgar M. Davis is to close it November 1 unless the public supports it. He also announces in a 300 word advertisement cabled full rate from Warsaw. "A play, like any other business," says his message, "should pay its own way in order to avoid becoming a parasite on the economic body."

London—Members of the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, are perturbed over a word used by Lord Banbury, 50, the chairman. Another chairman was selected. Lord Banbury declined to give up the gavel. "I don't know who the hell you are," he exclaimed. "Get out." The meeting broke up in disorder.

New York—One of the latest fines imposed by Federal Judge Atwell of Dallas, sitting in Brooklyn, is 25 cents. A negro fined had already spent 25 days in jail awaiting trial for having a gallon of whiskey.

Constantinople—President Mustafa Kemal is now a rhetorician. He is writing a new grammar and examining all officials on their A. B. C's. He has decreed the Arabic alphabet must be replaced by the Latin. Free radio lessons are being given.

New York—Will Rogers is to take Fred Stone's part in a show with Dorothy Stone while Fred recovers from injuries received in an airplane accident. Fred is to take a vacation with Jim Corbett and show him how to play golf. Jim has never played but Fred says he will be good enough to hit him on the head. Will is sacrificing $500,000 by pinching hitting. Charles Dillingham announces.

Berlin—Germany's progress reminds James J. Davis of music. The American secretary of labor remarked at a luncheon that when he visited the country in 1923 the people seemed to be moving to the tune of Chopin's funeral march. Now they are stepping to the tune of a rag-time band.

New York—Mrs. Charles B. Williams is disappointed over her inability to import cannibal mosquitoes in an effort to get rid of the domestic pest. She says they won't bite humans, but federal authorities have put an embargo on them. City health officials say the right way to get rid of mosquitoes is not to kill them but to prevent them breeding.

New York—Arch Bonge, 6 feet 5, theatre doorman, cowboy and artist, is back from his honeymoon with the former Eunice Swannan, daughter of a banker of Biloxi, Miss. Pending a boom in art he's returning to work as a doorman.

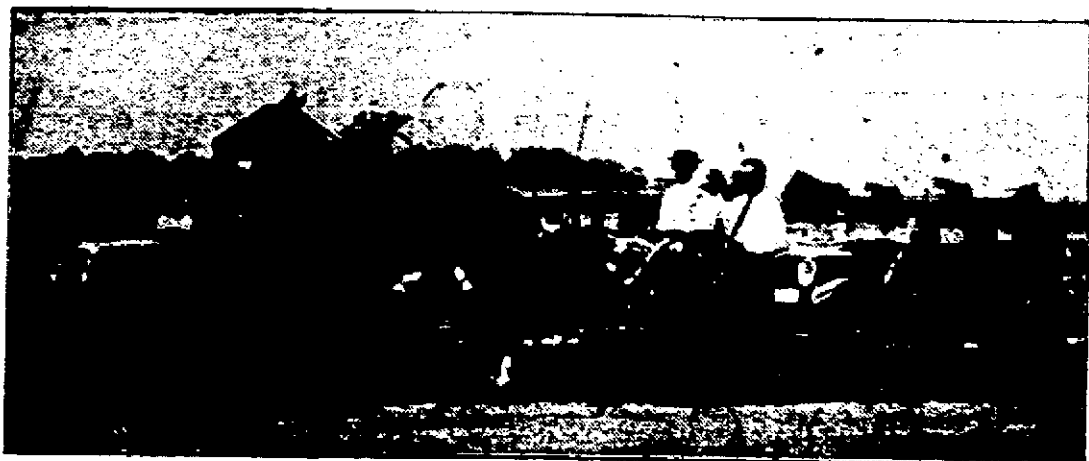

Long Term of Darkness
In the Arctic region on March 21 the sun is just visible on the horizon and appears to circle about it. From this day onward the sun continues to circle around in the sky, each day at a greater elevation until on June 21 an altitude of 23½ degrees is reached. After this date the circling is at a lower elevation and is again on the horizon on September 23; thus the sun is visible for six months. After September 23 the sun circles below the horizon, gradually descending until December 22, and then gradually ascending until it reappears on March 21; thus there is a period of six months of darkness.

Van Kleeck Receives Blue Ribbon As Oldest Durant Dealer.

John Van Kleeck of Kingston, N. Y., receiving the blue ribbon from T. S. Johnston, assistant to W. C. Durant, in recognition of being the oldest Durant dealer. Mr. Van Kleeck is shown driving the first Durant vehicle of transportation for which at one time he was the agent. In the background is shown the new 1928 Durant units.

John Van Kleeck, known throughout Ulster and surrounding counties for years as a horseman, is now equally well known as distributor for the Durant automobile lines. Mr. Durant over thirty years ago, when the automobile was in its infancy was engaged in the manufacture of vehicles such as Mr. Van Kleeck is shown riding in the photograph.

At that time Mr. Van Kleeck was agent for the Durant product. Now as president of the Van Kleeck Motor and Garage, Inc., he is selling the latest product of the Durant factories, the Durant line of automobiles. As the oldest dealer of W. C. Durant products Mr. Van Kleeck had the honor of driving the first car which Mr. Durant built at his factory and when the automobile replaced the Durant carriage line. Mr. Van Kleeck was the first dealer to be signed up for a consignment of cars.

Although Mr. Van Kleeck is the oldest dealer in point of years, his record of sales of Durant cars at the garage on North Front street indicates that he has profited by his long association with Durant and can still set the pace for the field.

Mazars and Measles

Old wooden drinking-bowls, known as mazars, appear to be becoming increasingly popular among wealthy collectors. One of these bowls fetched as much as $50,000, and it is rare to find one in good condition, and with a pedigree at less than $500.

The words "mazar" and "measles," by the way, are said to be derived from the same German word "maser," meaning spot, the spotted portion of maplewood being the favorite material employed in the making of these bowls.

Costume Party At Crosspatch

Everything is all set for the comical character costume party Saturday evening, August 25, at Crosspatch, near Willow.

About 35 of the young people have already notified Mrs. Cross that they will be disguised in costumes that will cause side-splitting merriment. Others will be in fancy dress of some character. Masks may be worn or not just as you please.

A prize of two dollars will be given for the best costume and one dollar for the next best. The money value of the prize is not so much, but there is lots of fun in outsmarting the others and capturing the verdict of the judges.

Mrs. Cross will be there as "Madame Crosspatch," a name which was often applied to her in the early days when someone was displeased because she wouldn't allow rough housing in the Community House. Mrs. Cross's costume will be of green satin with bright colored patches set crosswise all over it. "A funny costume need not be expensive," says Mrs. Cross. "Mine was made of odd bits of cretonne left over after making cushions and the green satin was used for lining."

It is hoped that some will come in real old fashioned costumes of the early days. That would be very picturesque. Crosspatch punch will be served. Felix is safely hidden and waiting to be found. "Herself," the dainty French doll, is dressed in rose colored silk waiting for her happy owner. It's going to be a lovely party. Everybody, including the children, is invited and no admission.

is charged. Several children are to be in costume, but it is not necessary to wear costume in order to come to the party. You can wear anything you like and be just as welcome to dance and take part in all the merriment. This is the last Crosspatch dance of the season. Mrs. Cross will go back to New York on September 1. She is on the staff of the New York Times and has been spending her vacation at her Crosspatch home.

Waltz Shown to Be Akin to Wallowing

Would you ever suspect that there was any relation between wallowing in a ballroom and wallowing in a mire? There is, however, for waltz is distinctly related to the Anglo-Saxon word welter, the basic meaning of which is to roll. Waltz itself is German, where again the basic meaning is to roll. In an encyclopedia of 1882 this was noted about the waltz: "Those manifold turnings and gesticulations which have lately become fashionable in this country (England) under the appellation of German waltz (or rather, waltzen)." Waltz may have come, according to some authorities, from the same source as volte or vault, the turning in horsemanship or fencing. This sense of the word is also found in volte-face, meaning to face suddenly about.—Dance Magazine.

Eleanor Gunn Says

New York—Early fall coat displays emphasize all shades of brown.

Ivory and brown is considered an ultra chic combination for fall.

British red is one of the most striking new shades.

The "Johnny" collar is the one best liked for fall coats. It may be said at this early date.

Queen Mary spanglers lace, wearing a coat of it at Ascot recently.

Large hats and much green were other Ascot impressions.

Velvet wraps for evening, and raglan sleeves for sports, are early autumn ideas of importance.

Agnes has scored with her so-called "five to midnight" caps. They are fashioned of silver, gold, or copper, and are close-fitting.

Suede gloves trimmed in patent leather are a Parisian fancy.

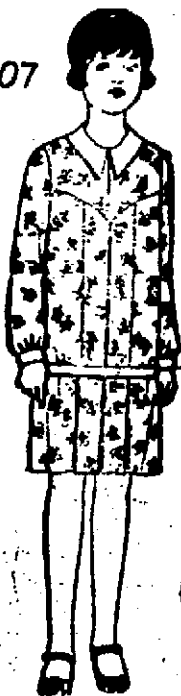

A washable print kid glove is another Paris innovation.

V necklines dominate early fall lines, and such scarf and collar treatments as are of interest accent this line by the use of stripes, diagonally arranged, or of angles.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

A Tux Frock for School or Play.

6207. Yoke portions provide a break in the lengthwise lines of this pleasing design, while plaits in front and back supply attractive fullness and ease below the yoke. A cotton print with dainty pattern in blue and red was chosen in this instance. The collar, and the cuff facing on the bishop sleeves is of white or sandy. Green or lavender linen with white linen for trimming would be nice.

This pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 4, 6, 8 and 10 years. To make the dress for a 6 year size will require 2 1/2 yards of 37 inch material, together with 1/4 yard of contrasting material for facing on cuffs, collar and belt.

Linen, Gay Leathers

for Summer Footgear

New models of summer shoes are being offered for wear with sports frocks, which use novel materials in attractive ways. Hand-blocked linen, woven fabrics with soft designs and printed linens with smooth surfaces on which the patterns are worked out in small designs are especially in favor. One attractive pair of shoes to wear with a green costume is made of a printed linen with an ivory background and has a small pattern of flowers and foliage worked out in red, blue and green. The heels and narrow strap are of green leather. Another pair for sports wear has light brown calf on the heel, sides, tip and strap and the remainder in natural-colored linen with a rough surface.

For afternoon wear with printed dresses there are shoes made of a basket-weave fabric with knots throughout. A bit of handwork in a contrasting color is used on the toe and at the sides. Very narrow straps and extremely high heels are the rule in these shoes. For promenading there are shoes of the printed and hand-blocked linen in bright designs. Heels in these are medium in height and the straps are of either the fabric or leather.

White kid shoes in fancy pump styles, low-cut oxfords and sandal effects are attractive, being trimmed with contrasting colors. Modernistic designs are used on the straps. One of the new oxfords, which has a medium spike heel, is made with three eyes and the tongue is so arranged that it shows the lacing in a lattice effect. Another smart pair, of white, is made in opera style, but has pipings at the side in light green and a tiny bow of the white kid faced with green.

For daytime wear the skins of reptiles are stylish, including water snake, lizard, python and the fine grains of alligator. Black, beige and parchment shades of kid are also seen. There is a call now, too, for pumps of black patent leather, with and without steel buckles. Some of the fancy oxfords of black lizard are shown with new applique work and pipings in silver.

To Purchase Ten Voting Machines

Tuesday evening the finance ways and means committee of the common council submitted a report favoring and recommending the purchase of ten additional voting machines by the city. The report was unanimously adopted. The machines will be ordered as to be received in time for use at the fall election in November. The city already owns twenty machines, one for each voting district, but a careful survey shows that at least thirty machines are needed in order to register the vote in Kingston.

May Shed Arm at Will

A starfish may jerk off each of its five arms seized in succession; it may cut off an injured or parasitized arm; in rare cases there is multiplication by division. Sea cucumbers discharge their viscera in the spasms of capture and may thus escape from an astonished foe. The replacement of the food canal is sometimes accomplished in ten days, though it may take as many weeks.

Plymouth 2-Door Sedan, $700

CHRYSLER Plymouth

The new Plymouth gives, in the lowest-priced field, size, style, smartness, speed and safety never before available at so low a price.

Here you find characteristic Chrysler performance from the new "Silver-Dome" high-compression engine, using any gasoline—with smoothness no other car under $1000 can approach.

full-sized, roomy bodies, ample for adult passengers, with comfortable, deep, luxurious seats and fittings you expect only in cars of far higher price; the extraordinary safety of lightaction, internal-expanding hydraulic 4-wheel brakes, safe and sure in all weather—the only car at or near its price with such equipment; absolutely new style, grace and distinction in body lines—with slender-profile chromium-plated radiator, "air-wing" fenders and arched-window silhouette.

To learn for yourself the new Plymouth's greater dollar-for-dollar value over the few cars which strive to compete with it, contrast them and their results with what you get in Plymouth at $675.

Aldermen Favor Referendum
I am opposed to movies and especially on Sundays.
"One movie man told me that he would give $1,000 to knock the partitions out of Kingston. I find that every abominable interest in our country favors Sunday movies. In the interests of morality, in the interests of our homes and of our children and in interests of good government I am opposed to Sunday movies."
Baptist Church Objects
Luther S. Decker said he appeared in behalf of the Albany Avenue Baptist Church to register a protest at this time against Sunday movies.
Trinity Church Opposed
The Rev. George L. Withey of Trinity M. E. Church said that he desired to register the protest of his church against the proposition and he had confidence enough in the common council to believe it would settle the question honestly. He said that he was the only active pastor present.
Only One Question Said O'Connor
A young man who gave his name as O'Connor said that there was only one question before the council and that was whether the people should be given the chance to vote on the subject. The question of religion was not before the meeting, he said.
Attorney Murray Speaks
Attorney Francis T. Murray said he represented the Kingston Holding Corporation which operates the Broadway Theatre and Reade's Kingston Theatre. He said the people he represented had no desire to slip anything over. The resolution introduced by Alderman Clare had been introduced without the knowledge of the theatre interests and it had reached the present stage without interference on the part of the theatre management. He said that of course the theatres favored Sunday movies and he believed he was in a position to show it would be not only for the benefit of the theatres but the city, taking the city as a whole. (At this point he was interrupted by hisses.)
Alderman Clare came to his rescue, saying he objected to any criticism. Those who opposed the question had been treated courteously, he said, and they should give the other side the same consideration.
"We are living in a modern age," said Mr. Murray. "The days of the blue laws have just about passed. One hundred and fifty to two hundred years ago that was how the people looked at the Sabbath." He said he did not wish to be understood as thinking the Sabbath should not be kept holy, but the time has passed when people are going to stand for the blue laws.
"At that time," he said, "it was a crime to drive a horse and wagon on Sunday. Do we want any law like that these days?"
Mr. Murray said that a visitor to

SCHUYLER C. SCHULTZ

Kingston would think our city lacking in progressiveness if he found our theatres closed on Sunday and it would likely influence him in not desiring to do business here or to making his residence here.
Mr. Murray said many of the up-town merchants believed that with Sunday movies the people would devote Saturdays to making the necessary purchases, knowing that on Sunday they could attend the show. He said that the up-town business men had severely felt the closing of the Wall street theatre.
If Sunday movies were allowed it would mean that both theatres would be kept open the year round. It would mean an influx of visitors to our city; it would keep our young people within the confines of the city rather than gallivanting around the country.
"You can't save our young people by closing our theatres on Sundays. If we keep the movies closed our young folks will hop into automobiles and go to Rosendale to see the movies or to some other town where they have them or else they will visit our various road houses."
"I would ask you who are opposed, would you rather see our young folks in the movies or at the road houses?"
He said he could assure the common council that if Sunday movies were allowed the price of admission would not be increased over ten cents and that not more than 60 cents would be charged.
In closing he read a letter from Dr. George F. Chandler, written to Harry Lazarus of the Broadway Theatre, who had asked the doctors' opinion on the question. Dr. Chandler replied that forty years ago it was thought sinful to print Sunday newspapers but now every one reads them. It was sinful to ride a bicycle on Sunday, but later people rode them to church. The same applied to automobiles but now every one who had a car rode to church. He thought it no more sinful to see a movie on Sunday than to listen to the radio or read a book. The movies need not interfere with any one going to church, and in closing Dr. Chandler wished Mr. Lazarus success in the movement for Sunday movies.
Mr. Baines Speaks
Mr. Baines of the Saugerties road said that the people faced the most important election in years this fall and it should not be befogged with a referendum at this time. Sunday movies would hinder business," he said. He also said that Dr. Chandler was a worthy man but so was Charles Ramsey who had done so much to build up the boyhood of Kingston and those present still remember those advertisements that Mr. Ramsey had written two years ago opposing Sunday movies.
Rev. Mr. Anthony Speaks
The Rev. Mr. Anthony spoke in opposition to Sunday movies and said he hoped the question would not be settled that evening but another meeting held in a larger hall to give every one a chance to be heard on the question.
Taxpayer Opposes
L. H. Willson said he spoke as a taxpayer and did not believe the taxpayers of the city should be burdened with the expense of holding a referendum at this time, especially as the question had been settled only a short time ago.
F. R. Matthews Opposes
Frank B. Matthews of F. B. Matthews & Company said that the mercantile interests were opposed to Sunday movies as they would not help business.
Mr. Kerr Wanted to Know
The Rev. Mr. Kerr said he would like to ask Mr. Murray to give them a few names of the uptown business men who favored Sunday movies, but Mr. Murray said that he did not think it would be fair to do so as it might tend to alienate those who opposed Sunday movies from doing business with the merchants.
Clare Moved for Vote
As no one else desired to be heard Alderman Clare moved that a vote be taken on the minority report, which was seconded by Alderman Mann.
Those Voting in Favor
The seven aldermen voting in favor of holding a referendum on Sunday movies were: Aldermen Molyneux, Fox, Mann, Ostrander, Clare, O'Reilly and Reilly.
The aldermen opposed were: Dressel, Haines, Hearnance, Relyea, Hull and Burger.
Report Adopted
City Clerk Moore announced the vote as 7 to 6 in favor of the adoption of the minority report, which was declared adopted by President Everett.
Other matters taken up will be found elsewhere.

Great Career Marred
by Greed and Priil
The earl of Marlborough, John Churchill, died in 1722.
"Faithful, though unfortunate" runs the motto beneath the dual shield of Marlborough; but you could hardly apply either term to John Churchill, founder of the family fortunes.
Faithful? He intrigued with William when James was on the throne. He intrigued with James when William was on the throne. Unfortunate? He earned more rewards, probably, than ever fell to a subject. "He was covetous as a lion," says Swift "and ambitious as the prince of it. Even Queen Anne had to turn aside and laugh when he deified it. And there seems little doubt that, among his other fruits of office, he did receive £8,000 a year for placing the army's bread contract in the right hands."
None the less, no soldier of his age could stand against him. "He never besieged a town which he did not take, nor fought a battle he did not gain," as Tension Juice said in a sermon.
Not without reason his name is written in letters of gold—with only one other, that of Milton—on the walls of St. Paul's, his old school; where, as readers of Thackeray will remember, he was a schoolfellow of the lovable Henry Esmond.—From the Continental Edition of the London Daily Mail.

Rare Book Secured by Library of Congress
One of the rarest of books on science, the first edition of Sir Isaac Newton's "Principia," was obtained by the Library of Congress, after years of search. Though only an inch and a half thick and ten inches high in seven and a half inches wide, with 510 pages, it has been termed "the most important printed work on exact science ever published." It was published in 1687 in London, and in it Newton first gave to the world the results of his fundamental study of the laws of gravitation. Two issues of the first edition were made in the year of its publication, one being intended for sale in England, and the other on the Continent. The Library of Congress copy is of the first issue. However, the entire edition was small and it is related by contemporary critics that as early as 1691 it was very difficult to obtain. At present it is almost completely unobtainable. The library's copy was bought for Watson Davis, managing editor of Science Service, but upon learning of the library's desire for a copy, he relinquished it. The full title of the book, in Latin, is "Philosophiæ Naturalis Principia Mathematica." An interesting feature of the title page is that it bears the imprimatur, or approval, of Samuel Pepys, famous for his diary, who was at that time president of the Royal society.

ELIMINATING the "Guess" in Furnishing "Guessing" that a piece or a suite of furniture will satisfy for years is costly chance-taking. Play safe. Choose furniture with a name that assures long satisfying usefulness. That's what we do.
The people who have bought Berkey & Gay suites here tell us that we are right in making a feature of it. They like the fact that its quality and good style doesn't cost a bit more than just ordinary furniture. May we show it to you?

Tagging Major League Bases

(By Herbert W. Barker, Associated Press Sports Writer.)
Thanks to Doug McWeeny and the Brooklyn Robins, the Giants still retain their slender hold on the National League's premier position. While the Giants were bowing to the Cincinnati Reds yesterday, McWeeny pitched the Robins to a three-hit 6 to 1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals and thus enabled the New Yorkers to lead the hectic pennant campaign by two percentage points.

The Giants' rush stopped abruptly in the face of Red Lucas' hurling at Cincinnati. Lucas held the lead-ers to five hits and the Reds got a 3 to 2 triumph by bunting four hits and a sacrifice off Freddy Fitzsimmons in the second inning. Try as they might the Giants never could overcome that advantage. Two singles followed by a double steal accounted for one New York run in the fourth and Bill Terry's homer in the ninth brought the invaders' total to two.

But McWeeny turned in an even more brilliant performance at St. Louis. Three single were all the Red Birds could gather off the right-hander. Two of these went to Ernest Orsatti, the Minneapolis recruit who drove in the Cardinals' only run in the fourth inning. Flint Rhem allowed 12 hits but only two runs in the first eight innings but Sylvester Johnson was touched for four hits and as many runs in the ninth when the Dodgers put the game on ice.

A victory for the Pittsburgh Pirates and a defeat for the Chicago Cubs further tightened up the situation among the third, fourth and fifth place clubs in the senior circuit. The Cubs, beaten for the sixth consecutive time by the Phillies, 3 to 1, held third place by only two percentage points while the Pirates by defeating Boston, 6 to 2, drew to within eight points of the Reds who are fourth.

Claude Willoughby held the Cubs to five scattered hits while the Phils pounded Sheriff Blake and Hal Carlson for 16.

Remy Kremer pitched a steady game for the Pirates in hanging up his sixth consecutive victory. Pie Traynor led the assault with three singles and a double.

The complexion of the American League race remained unchanged as the New York Yankees and Philadelphia Athletics both won, leaving the champions five and one-half games in front of the A's.

Walter Hoyt outpitched Sam Gray as the Yanks downed the St. Louis Browns, 3 to 1. Gray was the victim of bunched hits in the second and third innings while Hoyt, pitching his 15th victory of the year, kept the Browns' safeties well scattered.

Behind good pitching by Jack Quinn, the A's pounded four Cleveland moundmen for 16 hits and an easy 12 to 4 triumph at Philadelphia. The game was decided in the first inning when the A's smacked Billy Bayne for six hits and that many runs. Four out of four was Max Bishop's total for the day.

The Chicago White Sox replaced the Indians in fourth place by taking over the Washington Senators, 3 to 1. Grady Adkins allowing seven hits, Nick Altrock, official coach and "funny man" of the Senators, was chased from the bench for "razzing" the umpires and Johnny Mostil 60, the same punishment when he exhibited his displeasure after Umpire Guthrie ruled he had not caught Barnes' fly in the seventh.

Washington fell into seventh place through this defeat which was coupled with a 4 to 3 win for the Detroit Tigers over the Boston Red Sox. The Tigers did all their scoring in the third, fourth and fifth innings. Boston threatened in the latter innings but Lil Stoner went to Elam Vangilder's rescue and held the Red Sox in check.

Pan-Ams Sure
Of Blue Sox Win

The Pan-Ams will cross bats with the U. & D. Schilling team of the Industrial League at Pan-Am Park on the Saugerties road Friday evening of this week. The game will be to get the olives in shape for their coming tilt with the Blue Sox at the Fair Grounds Sunday afternoon for the benefit of the American Legion Drum Corps.

"We will battle as never before in the game with the Blue Sox for the benefit of the Legionnaires," said Manager Bill McNally of the Pan-Ams recently. "For it is the desire of every one of my players to trounce the Sox. As for myself I am confident that my Pan-Ams are capable of doing the trick, and have no fear that when the contest has ended there will be another win to our credit."

The Pan-Ams are being coached by Sheriff Artie Rice for the encounter with the Blue Sox. The latter team is under the tutelage of Dick Johnston, well known as a former stellar diamond performer, and both coaches are imparting a great deal of baseball knowledge to their teams. The players are whipping into shape in a fine manner, which promises a good game.

The teams will be escorted by the American Legion Drum Corps from the court house to the Fair Grounds, where the game will be played. Before the game the Drum Corps will do some drilling.

SPARTANS' OPPONENTS
CANCEL TILTS SCHEDULED

Dave Hawk's Spartans will not meet the Blue Sox at the Fair Grounds this evening as scheduled, for the Sox manager called off his agreement. His action has caused much displeasure to the Spartans, who hold one win over the team and are anxious to get another crack at Dick Johnston's side.

The Clermonts, who were booked to mix it with the Spartans Friday evening at the Fair Grounds, also cancelled their engagement, which left the radio boys without a game for the week. Manager Longmeyer would like to book a game for Friday evening and Sunday afternoon. Managers of local teams may get in touch with him by phone after 7:30 in the evening. His call is 1212.

5th Inning Rally
Wins for P.O.-City

The Postoffice-City defeated the Hercules, 7-5, Tuesday at the Athletic Field and took full possession of second place in the Industrial League. The T. N. T. boys blew up in the fifth inning and the combine players took advantage of their misplays to romp away with the ball game.

Freddy Decker pitched for the Hercules. He was touched for eight hits and coupled with his teammates' errors he was in trouble throughout the contest. Phil Peters opposed Decker on the mound. He had one bad inning, the fourth, when four runs were scored off five hits.

Lutz Bruhn led the attack for the combine team, collecting three doubles. Scully was the Hercules' best bet. He hit to the safety zone three times.

Two errors by Scully and Fritz Bruhn's double gave the combine players a 2-0 lead in the first inning. They held it until the third inning when the Hercules staged a four-run rally. Hits by Lynch, Scully, Petersen, Kozlowski and Van Etten and an error accounted for the runs.

Wheeler was given a walk to start the winning rally in the fifth inning. F. Bruhn singled and Scully erred on Davitt's grounder, Wheeler scoring. Decker allowed Bruhn and Davitt to score when he made a wild throw to the catcher after picking up Bob Lynch's grounder. Scully made his second error of the inning and Peters reached second. Lutz Bruhn sent both runners home with his third double of the game.

The Hercules tried hard to rally in the last inning and managed to shove one run across the rubber, but Peters bore down on them and held them in check.

JACK SHARKEY'S LEG
PLACED IN PLASTER CAST

New York, Aug. 22 (AP).—Promoters seeking to fill the vacant heavyweight throne will have to get along without the services of Jack Sharkey for the next six weeks at least.

Less than a minute before he would have ended training for a bout with "Big Boy" Peterson at Boston tomorrow night, Sharkey, working out in a local gymnasium, yesterday suffered a badly wrenched left leg. Therefore, he has been forced to cancel not only his match with Peterson but another one at Detroit August 31, against Pierre Charles, of Belgium. The injury also forced Sharkey out of consideration for a match against Roberto Roberti, the giant Italian, which Humbert Fagury planned for next month.

Sharkey's leg was placed in a plaster cast by Dr. W. G. Fralich, who said the Lithuanian would be out of the ring at least six weeks, and possibly for two months.

Despite the fact that Sharkey was forced to withdraw, Robert McCurdy, matchmaker for the Arena A. A. of Boston, said the show he had planned for tomorrow night would go on as scheduled. Peterson will be pitted against some other foe, possibly Johnny Rizzo or Charles.
